Published By The Seniors

of Clinton High School....

in Clinton Massachusetts.

"Never Have So Many Owed So Much To So Few" . . .

Foreword

On August 14, 1945, the bells of victory and peace rang out upon a war-weary world, thus making the class of nineteen hundred and forty-six the first graduating class in four long years to step out into a world bright with the promise of a future. There are few words to express gratitude like ours. In our hands we hold the freedom of generations to come.

While watching our fathers, brothers and friends march off to war, we have come to realize how much that same freedom means. We have learned to live, fight, even die rather than surrender.

On this foundation do we begin the construction of our lives, hoping some day to be worthy heirs of those who paved the way.

Joan M. Coleman

The Class of 1946 proudly dedicates this year book to Mr. John F. Comiskey, our class advisor.

Through his efforts and cooperation during the past few months, which certainly have been most difficult, we shall be able to look back upon our Senior year as one of the memorable events of our lives.

He has worked generously and patiently with us, and to him, we offer, in all sincerity, our heartfelt "thanks for a job well done."

John F. Comiskey

Now comes the most difficult part of every year book, to thank the entire school faculty for their untiring efforts in launching us on our journey through life. Each has given us many things that cannot be fully expressed here.

We shall always treasure memories of them, and we leave with regret, but are wiser and enriched by a never to be forgotten contact.

Looking Up . . . .

Looking up—and on to bigger and better things goes the Class of 1946 through the portals of Clinton High School.

The groundwork is laid. Our footing is secure. Who and what we will be in the years to come remains a question, but our foundation is firmly established.

We are standing on the bottom rung of the ladder, about to climb upward toward the future, shining like a bright star in the heaven of opportunity.

JOAN M. COLEMAN

1946 IN REVIEW

ACT I

Time: September 1942, to June 1943

Setting: Clinton High School

Characters: Frightened Freshmen

. . . . . SCENE I . . . . .

As the opening bell rings, we find a small group of humble, anxious Freshmen hustling through the corridors, peering into rooms in which they have no business, going up wrong stairs and, in general, acting confused.

. . . . SCENE II . . . . .

This same group of characters is now making its first attempt behind the footlights of the Town Hall — yes, the Thanks-giving Night Show. In the cast we find a large number of the same boys and girls who entered two months ago, only now they are more confident.

. . . . . SCENE III . . . . .

After a short Christmas vacation, our heroes and heroines get their baptism of mid-year examinations. Upon completing the longest week of the school year, however, there is much rejoicing and our little group finds its long hours of study have not been in vain— now they know what the word "Mid-year" means.

. . . . . SCENE IV . . . . .

Again the noted actors and performers of the little group apply their grease paint. However, this occasion is the Easter Interclass Dramatics. Although our friends did not "bring home the bacon," their efforts were appreciated.

. . . . . SCENE V . . . . .

As June approaches, the "frightened" Freshmen are now quite dignified, and decked out in their white flannels and evening gowns, they look back on their first year in C. H. S. as a happy experience and ahead to another year, for they are now 40-point Sophomores.

"1946 In Review"

ACT II

Time:

September 1943, to June 1944

Setting:

Clinton High School

Characters:

Sophomores

. . . . . SCENE I . . . . .

Returning from a two-months vacation, the members of the Class of '46 begin to think of their first class election. Miss Mary Murphy is selected as Class Advisor, and under her supervision the election is held. When the votes are counted, we find that Edward Grady has been elected President; Mary Collins, Vice-President; Mary McNally, Secretary; Peter Kamataris, Treasurer.

. . . . . SCENE II . . . . .

The first attempt to fill the class treasury is by means of a series of dances held on Friday nights at Music Hall. With the co-operation of all the classes, a foundation is laid for a fairly sizable treasury.

. . . . . SCENE III . . . . .

Mid-years again come in sight, and this time at least we don't get the schedule mixed up. We are old hands at this business of cramming, too.

. . . . . SCENE IV . . . . .

Graduation again, but not ours. However, we find that we have graduated into the upper classes of the school. Now we are 80-point Juniors.

ACT III

Time:

September 1944, to June 1945

Setting:

Clinton High School

Characters:

Juniors

. . . . . SCENE I . . . . .

As the curtain rises on the third act, we find elections over for the second time with the same results. Orders for class rings are now placed, after a careful study of various styles has been made. Everyone impatiently awaits their arrival.

. . . . . SCENE II . . . . .

Mid-years again, and this time we take them in stride, having been all through this torture twice before.

. . . . . SCENE III . . . . .

Our Class Advisor, Miss Murphy, becomes Mrs. Stevens, and we all wish her happiness.

. . . . . SCENE IV . . . . .

Various committees for the Junior Prom are appointed and everyone is doing his share of work. Russ Cole's Orchestra is secured and the more industrious classmates begin decorating the Town Hall. The "Big Night" is here, and among the large crowd the Juniors make a good showing.

. . . . . SCENE V . . . . .

Some of our older members won't be back with us next year, as the Draft is an important factor in the lives of those over eighteen. However, most of us are now looking forward to our best year ever. We are Seniors!

"1946 In Review"

ACT IV

Time: September 1945, to June 1946
Setting: Clinton High School
Characters: Seniors

. . . . . SCENE I . . . . .

Class elections are being held, and this time there is a big shake-up. We now have Archie Cataldi as President; Marilyn Stirewalt, Vice-President; Mary McNally, Secretary; John Gallagher, Treasurer. Due to the absence of Mrs. Stevens, Mr. Sheridan is made our Class Advisor.

. . . . SCENE II . . . . .

Football is our great interest this Fall, and our team, including many Seniors on its first squad, battles its way to the Class C State Championship. The Lions Club and Rotary Club present gold footballs to the victors at a football assembly as the student body cheers.

. . . . . SCENE III . . . . .

Our Senior play is a success and our classmates get a round of applause. Our thanks and appreciation go to Mr. Sheridan, who directed the whole affair.

. . . . . SCENE IV . . . . .

The class rings finally arrive, photographers are selected and the Class Book gets under way. Now we begin to feel like real Seniors.

. . . . . SCENE V . . . . .

Mr. Comiskey is now our Class Advisor and it looks as if he has plenty to do with a Senior Prom coming up. Committees are organized and finally everything is prepared. The event is not largely attended, but all those present have fun.

. . . . SCENE VI . . . . .

We find ourselves dividing our time between Tau Sigma, History Circle, French Club and Aeronautics Club. Miss Driscoll, meanwhile, is trying to get us ready for our final appearance.

. . . . . SCENE VII . . . . .

The night of nights has arrived, and we receive our diplomas. Now we realize that this is not the end of school, but the beginning of our education in the world.

. . . . . THE END . . . . .

GENERAL COURSE

"Curtain going up on 1946," as Jeanette of the laughing eyes, the vivacious smile, the sleek ebony hair, steps into the spotlight. Our rating is A-1—quiet, dignified, well-mannered. We can't help but like her, and in all fairness we can't help but use superlatives. Destined to be a definite boon to a sick room in her chosen profession of nursing, Jeanette leaves C. H. S. with heaps of good wishes. One grand gal is the unanimous opinion of her classmates.

Mary Congetta Angelini

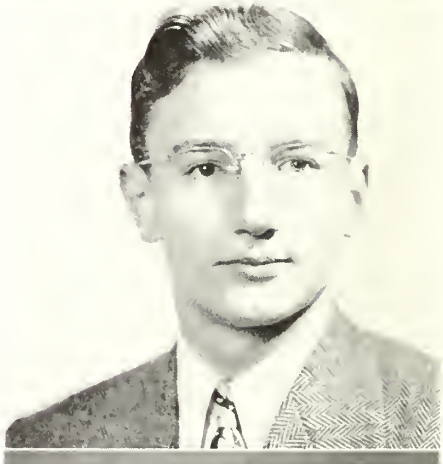
GENERAL COURSE

We don't like to be copycats and use the well worn "good things come in small packages," but for Connie, what else? We know a good thing when we see one, and since you'll want to hear more, we're going to keep right on going. Small, cute, congenial, likeable, a good listener,—but wait a minute. There are 137 more boys and girls to tell you about. Now draw the conclusion. We've drawn ours: Connie, to us, is tops . . . and then some!

Photography Club - History Circle

Donald James Baer

TECHNICAL COURSE



Mr. Baer—the math wizard, the jovial wit, the affable lad—has left definite footprints on the C. H. S. sands. His friendliness has made us all take notice. We've talked with him, studied with him, laughed with him, and—result—our records all read the same. "Don" is one swell fellow, destined for big things in a big world, and needless to say, we're all behind him one hundred per cent.

Photography Club - History Circle - Tau Sigma - President of Aeronautics Club - Class Book Staff

Philip Thomas Bailey

GENERAL COURSE

To know Phil is to know what freedom from worry and what mental agility really means. His athletic prowess has been demonstrated as a member of our football and basketball squads, and incidentally, don't be surprised if you hear more from Phil in this connection. Our fun-loving lad leaves C. H. S. with the best wishes of a host of friends.

Photography Club - History Circle - Tau Sigma - Football 1, 2, 4 Basketball

Katherine Julia Ball

GENERAL COURSE

The 1946 "Who's Who" lists "Katty" Ball as "most cheerful," and you can take it from those who know that this is no understatement! When "mid-years" loom on the horizon, "Katty" is the girl who assures you everything will turn out all right, and when the atmosphere is blackest, "Katty" is the one who sees the bright side. A gap is left in the C. H. S. ranks, but the airlines will have an asset in a charming hostess, and don't think we're not proud and pleased to make this important contribution.

Photography Club - History Circle

Helen Ann Bazydlo

COMMERCIAL COURSE

We've had blonde fever ever since "Buzzie" entered the portals of C. H. S. four years ago. Unassuming and shy, we've learned to like this little belle more and more as we've come to know her better. Her gracious manner and the conscientious way she does things have left strong impressions with us. We feel certain that "Buzzie" will prove to be an efficient secretary in the business world.

Photography Club - History Circle - Thanksgiving Show

Adelaide Beck

COLLEGE COURSE

Hollywood has its Ingrid Bergman, but C. H. S. has its "Heidi" Beck. Her natural beauty, warm friendliness and perpetual pleasantness have made her an outstanding member of the class. She's been heaps of fun, and we shall always retain pleasant memories of our "Heidi." Best wishes to our classmate and may life treat her kindly.

Photography Club - History Circle - Junior Prom Committee

Jean's future endeavor lies in the business world and we predict her ability and initiative will bring her deserved recognition.

Photography Club - History Circle

Bertha H. Bliznak

COMMERCIAL COURSE

Tall, graceful, charming, versatile—all add up to Bertha, one of our loveliest girls. "Bert's" distinctive taste in clothes has won the admiration of all her classmates. Proof? They chose her the best dressed girl of 1946. Although she has always preferred social activities to study, her name has appeared on the testimonial list every quarter. Bertha's future lies in the secretarial field, and we know that she will be as successful a secretary as she was a student at C. H. S. Best of luck, Bertha!

Photography Club - History Circle - Senior Prom Committee

Charles Frederick Bobeck

GENERAL COURSE

Born and raised in the North End—tall, blonde with blue eyes, shy, unassuming, dependable—all these describe "Chubby." Not too fond of school activities, he preferred to walk in the woods with his dog and gun or go bowling with his pals. Although he was not a grind, his marks were well above average. "Chubby" plans to enter the U. S. Navy soon after graduation. Here's wishing him the best of luck from the Class of 1946.

Photography Club - History Circle - Tau Sigma

Elizabeth Marie Brogie

GENERAL COURSE

Well, there goes Betty with her sparkling eyes and pleasant disposition. Although shy by nature, still laughter was never a stranger to her. On leaving C. H. S. Betty is undecided as to what she would like to do, but we who know her wish her all kinds of success in whatever she chooses to do.

Photography Club - History Circle - Junior Prom Committee

Andrew Browchuk

GENERAL COURSE

His quiet, unassuming manner has gained for him many friends who will miss his pleasant and cheerful companionship. Upon the completion of Army training, Andrew will seek further education in one of the leading colleges of the East. Success to Andy from '46.

Photography Club - History Circle - Thanksgiving Show

Kathleen Frances Cannon

GENERAL COURSE

There is something especially pleasing to us about the name Kathleen and we have a strong suspicion that it is due to this miss who bears it. From her first day in C. H. S., she has radiated joy and we have all been better because of it. Always active and cooperative in school affairs, Kathleen has greatly helped to make these functions successful. She has been a good student and Kathy's faithfulness has been rewarded with many testimonials. A fond "adieu" to Kathleen from her classmates.

Alfred H. Carl

TECHNICAL COURSE

Al is another of the "regular boys" from the Acre. He is a quiet, unpretentious sort of person, but he possesses a fine sense of humor. We're sure the days would have been quite dull if it weren't for his ever-ready jokes. Despite his fun-loving nature, he has always done well in his studies. Good luck, Al, in anything you decide to do, and best wishes from the class of '46.

Photography Club - History Circle - Tau Sigma - Aeronautics Club

Raymond Alfred Chase

GENERAL COURSE

Here we present another product of the North End—a boy well known to all the students. This tall lad may have appeared to be one of the quiet members of our class, but his many friends have a very different opinion. Their appraisal:—always joking, never tired of sleeping, mechanically minded and a power on the basketball court. Though Ray has not revealed his future plans we know that he will meet with success in whatever he chooses for a career.

Photography Club - History Circle - Thanksgiving Show 3, 4 - Orchestra 4

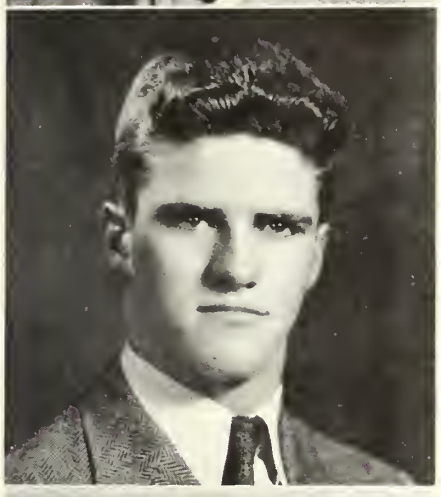
With his many fine qualities we are sure he will succeed.

Photography Club - History Circle - Tau Sigma



Frederick C. Duncanson

Only a serious student like Fred would tote such an armful of books to and from Greeley Hill. His record of accomplishment, equalled by few, is a testimony of hours spent endeavoring to master difficult problems in math and physics. Many fictitious and wild rumors were sent on their merry way by this astute fellow, to the chagrin of his companions. Chuck-full of true C. H. S. spirit, he has loyally supported all school activities.

It is a pleasure to present another classmate who helped bring fame to the Town of Clinton as a smashing linesman on our football team. Everyone knows him as "Bert," the pleasant fellow with the "Harvard Clip," and an ability to converse intelligently. Many things which would have aroused the ire of most people left "Bert" unperturbed. We bid a hesitant and regretful farewell to him whom we have come to know and like so well.

CLINTON HIGH SCHOOL SENIOR CLASS

The Senior Show . . . .

"PLUMB CRAZY"

For our Senior Show, we chose a two act comedy, which was presented under the able direction of Mr. Edward Sheridan.

The entire action takes place at the summer camp of Mr. and Mrs. Aaron Whitney. The plot is concerned with the arrival of an important guest whom the Whitneys have never seen, and whose visit portends a fine business deal for Mr. Whitney and perhaps romance for his daughter Janis.

The fun begins with a case of mistaken identity, when the guest Jeff Redfield is taken for the plumber and continues when the plumber, Dan, a radical is persuaded to play the part of the guest.

With succeeding complications—each funnier that the last—the play moves to a smashing climax and comes at last to a happy ending for all.

TAU SIGMA

Tau Sigma is an organization of Senior Boys, formed to enable these young men to obtain instruction in etiquette which will aid them in their pursuit of success and happiness.

We are indebted to Mr. Lewis S. Gordon, who has supervised the club since its formation and whose counsel has been sought by many students over the years.

The officers elected were William Gosselin, President, and William Masciarelli, Secretary-Treasurer.

The year's activities, as usual, came to a close with a banquet and dance in June.

History Circle

ROBERT BURGWINKLE
President

The History Circle was organized the later part of April under the supervision of Mr. Henry M. O'Toole.

Meetings were held weekly on Wednesday at 7:30 P. M. Mr. O'Toole gave talks on government and had many interesting speakers on this topic.

Our club, as always, has had a very successful year. Now that gas and tire rationing is just a not-so-pleasant dream, we are quite confident that our long looked for trip to Provincetown will be realized this year.

In pre-war days this trip was one of the highlights of the year's activities and proved to be not only entertaining but also educational in character. We anticipate with great pleasure a resumption of this popular event.

THE MEMORABILIA STAFF

The Sophomores Present: Sophomore "Swingsters"

The annual "Spring Stunt Night" sponsored by the Clinton High School Athletic Council was held in the Town Hall and proved to be one of the most unusual and enjoyable High School productions in years.

The setting was a courtroom with Edward McMullen in the role of judge. Before Judge McMullen and the jury, made up of the audience, each class presented its case.

Our class presented "Sophomore Swingsters," which consisted of songs, laughs, dances, drama. It featured Ellen Tierney as Mistress of Ceremonies, Julia Kelley, Rosalie Mortimer and Mary Duffy, an engaging trio, gave out with melodious tunes. Dorothy O'Malley excelled in a novelty song and dance. Sonny Grady with his inspiring tenor voice, Harriet Smith, our sweet soprano, and Arthur Geranios, with his singing guitar, rounded out our part of the program.

To those who displayed their talents so willingly, and to Mr. Henry O'Toole for his masterful direction, the Class of 1946 extends its sincere appreciation and thanks.

Clinton High Minstrels of 1944-1945

For the first time in many years, the entire four classes combined to present a hilarious and stimulating Minstrel Show. Music, dancing, gay costumes and end men with amusing quips served to make the show a great hit.

The treat of the evening was the ever versatile Ellen Tierney with her rendition of "The Thing-Ummy Bob." Attired in overalls, a welder's helmet and carrying a lunchbox, Ellen succeeded in keeping the audience in stitches by distributing her bananas and hotdogs to members of the cast and audience.

The show proved to be a success and the Class of 1946 wishes to express its appreciation to Director Dan Haigh for his untiring efforts to give us an evening of high entertainment. We are grateful to the members of the cast and to all who assisted us so ably in our attempt to provide an enjoyable evening.

The Minstrels of 1945 followed a pattern similar to that of 1944. Minstrels are ever old and ever new; consequently, the presentation was also a great social as well as a financial success. Again, the affair was under the able direction of Mr. Haigh.

The 1946 "Le Cercle Francais," under the direction of Miss Mary M. Kerrigan, was organized January twenty-third. Eugene Scanlon was elected President; Rosalie Mortimer, Vice-President; Joanne Smith, Secretary; and Vincent Lipka, Treasurer. In March new members were initiated and the event provided much merriment. Meetings were held Wednesday afternoons in Room 8 and were conducted in French.

Le Cercle Francais

AERONAUTICS CLUB

The Aeronautices Club is composed exclusively of the members of the Aeronautics class. The members of the club spent several hours, each year, at the Bolton Airport, supplementing their class work with actual demonstrations, by airport personnel, of controls, instruments, types of engines, and types of planes, both on the ground and in the air. The club members are given a free ride each year for this purpose.

The Club has, for the past two years, sponsored the sale of schedule pencils, and High School pins, the profits from which were used this year to purchase a surplus training plane, which will be completely dismantled and the parts kept in the attic of the Annex, or "Shangri-La," as it is known to the club members.

The plane, a Vultee Valiant, called the BT-13, was flown from Albany to the Bolton Airport in March, and the members of the club have been busy ever since in taking the plane to pieces and transferring the parts to the High School. A sextant and an astrograph was also acquired from surplus Air Corps properties, through the R. F. C.

Freshman Interclass Play

"COUPON 17"

Featuring: Phil Bailey, Diore Marini, Edward Gabouray, Sonny Grady, Julia Kelley, Rosalie Mortimer, John O'Malley, Joseph Mosa, Ellen Tierney, Arthur Geranios.

Written and Staged by
Henry M. O'Toole, May 7, 1943

This play marked our entry into High School Dramatics, and while we did not obtain the coveted prize, nevertheless we acquitted ourselves very well indeed.

CLINTON HIGH SCHOOL BAND

A band for Clinton High? Wonderful, but impossible! The idea originated with the Clinton Lions Club and became a reality with the approval and aid of the Athletic Council. On June 1, 1944 the initial rehearsal was held. All through the Summer, Fall and Winter, under the capable direction of Messrs. Charles Husband and John Giblin, experienced bandsmen, rehearsals were held weekly. In the meantime a drive was started to secure funds with which to outfit the band. Through the untiring efforts of the sponsors of the band, the drive was successful and soon measurements were taken for natty uniforms, and drums and instruments were ordered. Some local citizens and organizations generously donated instruments.

Then came the great day. On May 23, 1945 the C. H. S. Band in striking green and gold uniforms made its first public appearance in Lowell. We were wrong—it was wonderful but not impossible for our school to have a band!

Now this band not only plays for school affairs, but also has served the town on many public occasions.

ORCHESTRA

Once again the close of the year has brought forth the young and ambitious musicians who will combine their talents to bring us the unforgettable music of our graduation. Their enthusiasm and will to cooperate will undoubtedly contribute greatly to the success of our commencement exercises.

The Class of 1946 expresses its sincere gratitude and appreciation to Miss Elinor Driscoll, our music supervisor, for her untiring efforts and capable direction.

Now it was our turn to put on the prom, and various committees under the supervision of Mrs. Jonathan Stevens were chosen well in advance of the date to carefully plan and properly prepare for the gala event of the year.

Fresh roses were placed in generous clusters on the walls with the stage flanked by rose-trimmed trellises among suitable greens. The fragrance of the freshly cut flowers added a novel idea to a well planned color scheme. By eight-thirty the couples began to arrive and as the vari-colored gowns of the girls and the white coats of the boys merged with the many flowers a very colorful picture resulted.

Russ Cole and his orchestra provided an evening of delightful music. At ten o'clock the grand march was begun under the capable direction of Lewis S. Gordon, ending with the formation of a huge "V" and everyone joining in the singing of "God Bless America." The couples who attended will long remember this evening of pleasure.

1946 MIDLAND LEAGUE CHAMPIONS

Massachusetts State Class "C" Champions

Football

Nobody expected many victories from the 1945 football eleven, and rightly so, for Coach McCaffrey had lost almost all of last year's starting lineup. But things began to happen pretty fast, starting with the reconstruction of Fuller Field and the acquisition of Bill McMahon as assistant coach. Mr. McMahon immediately began teaching the boys the modified "T" formation with its many variations. The squad worked hard and long hours to learn this new system and finally mastered it.

In a practice game with Shrewsbury High, the team didn't look too well, and the townspeople immediately became pessimistic about our prospects. The fans now figured that the team would have merely an average year.

When the opening game arrived, however, the boys were full of pep and confidence and were determined to show the people of Clinton their gratitude for all the things that they had received, such as lights, a supporting band, and new equipment. On Sept. 14, opening night under the new lights, a team which the fans of Clinton had long dreamed of, was unfolded to the public. Here they were seeing for the first time, the boys who were going to achieve the greatest glory ever received by a Clinton High School eleven. A new feature inaugurated this year was the appointment of a different captain for each game.

Now we present a condensation of the Highlights of the 1945 season.

Clinton - 7 Gardner - 0

With comparatively few experienced players in the starting line-up, Clinton opened the season at home with a bang by defeating Gardner to the tune of 7-0. Both teams battled nip and tuck for three quarters with our team having a slight advantage. Early in the fourth quarter, Johnny Gallagher scampered through the center of the line and raced twenty-three yards to score the only touchdown of this hard fought game. Jim McLaughlin added the extra point. Gardner was held in check by Clinton's strong line and Clinton walked off the field as victors over this team for the first time in twenty years. Standouts for Clinton were Grady, Captain Gosselin and Johnny Gallagher.

Clinton - 14 Natick - 13

Clinton travelled to Natick the following Saturday for its first Midland League game. A large crowd of Clinton fans were on hand to see Clinton push Natick all over the field in the first half. Late in the second quarter, Grady scored on a pass from McLaughlin and again later in the period McLaughlin scored on a sneak play. He also added the extra points. Whether it was the condition of the field or the hot weather, we don't know, but in the last half, Natick scored two quick touchdowns but failed to gain the second extra point, much to the delight of the rooters from Clinton. The game ended with Clinton again in scoring position. Johnny Gallagher was the Captain for this second game. Grady, McLaughlin and Vitone were standouts for Clinton.

Clinton - 25 Milford - 0

Clinton captured its second Midland League game, this time in Milford. Cataldi opened the scoring with a nine yard jaunt on the first play of the second period. In the third period Clinton really opened up. Paul McNally kicked off and Jim McLaughlin fell on the ball for the second score. Gallagher scored from the three for the next touchdown and Cataldi ran back a Milford punt fifty-eight yards for the final Clinton score. Captain George Vitone, Gosselin and Valenkamph played a good game in the line with Cataldi, Cote, and Patsy Vitone shining in the backfield.

Clinton - 14 Marlboro - 0

Next on the list of Clinton opponents was Marlboro, and this time Clinton walked off the field with its third Midland League win. In the second period a Marlboro punt was blocked and Willie Masciarelli fell on the ball in the end zone. Late in the last period Jim McLaughlin sneaked over for the second score. Jimmy again kicked both points after the touchdowns. Captain Cataldi, Masciarelli, and Valenkamph played a brilliant game.

Clinton - 28 Webster - 6

The following week Clinton played its second home game under the lights. Led by Captain Bert Valenkamph the Green and Gold really poured it on over its opponents. The first time Clinton received the ball it marched forty-four yards for a touchdown. Jim McLaughlin punched over from the one yard line. Soon afterwards he went over again for his second touchdown from the two yard line. The third score was made by Cataldi on a nice run from the twelve yard line. After the fourth touchdown, on a pass, from McLaughlin to Vanasse, the Coach sent in all the substitutes. Bartlett scored on the subs in the last few minutes of play. The whole Clinton team stood out but McLaughlin was really clicking that night. Besides scoring two touchdowns he also kicked the four points after the scores.

Clinton - 6 St. Bernard's - 0

Under the lights for the second week in a row, Clinton defeated a strong, fighting St. Bernard's High School team. Whether the boys were a little over-confident or not we do not know but their play did not measure up to the standard of the prior game. The lone score of this rugged game came in the second period when McLaughlin faded back and tossed a perfect strike to Cataldi who outran St. Bernard's secondary to the end zone. Clinton's strong line held back many of St. Bernard's thrusts into its territory. Clinton's big right end, Captain Babe Browchuck played a sterling game and time and again smashed through to stop St. Bernard's backfield men.

Clinton - 0 Leominster - 0

The great day had arrived for the Clinton team. Here Clinton was stepping out of its class to play a big Leominster team. The fans by the thousands poured into Leominster's Doyle field to watch the game for which our boys had been pointing. They entered the game with the odds against them but with the opening whistle started to show the fans some good football which they would long remember. Although neither team scored, Clinton threatened time and again but when they reached the goal line Leominster would dig in and hold. The officiating was very poor with the crowd booing the officials throughout the game. Behind the brilliant leadership of Captain Jim McLaughlin, the boys really gave all they had, but it wasn't quite enough. Even though Clinton wasn't victorious, the fans are still talking about this torrid contest. Clinton received a severe setback when it was learned that Bill Gosselin, star center, had suffered a cracked collarbone. Bill's injury occurred in the second quarter, yet he played the remainder of the game before reporting his accident to the coaches. This is just a sample of the high spirit which spurred on the boys of Clinton High School to an unbeaten season.

Clinton - 6 Hudson - 0

The following week brought the game that county fans had long been waiting for, a clash of undefeated teams. It was played on Fuller's field under the lights before the biggest crowd ever to witness a game here. This was really a one-sided affair for Clinton, although the score does not indicate it. Time and again our team marched to the Hudson goal line only to be stopped by a frantic last ditch stand. Late in the third period Clinton finally scored on a pass from McLaughlin to Browchuck with the point after being blocked. This was Clinton's best offensive game so far, and downfield blocking was excellent. The fans are still talking about the wonderful blocking and tackling that the boys showed that night—Paul McNally was the standout in this regard. The whole Clinton team played good ball, especially the line led by Captain Kanataris.

Clinton - 19 Fitchburg - 0

Fresh from their victory over Hudson, the Green and Gold next proceeded to trim a strong Fitchburg eleven. Fitchburg, a Class B team was the last big threat for Clinton's unbeaten season and the boys were determined to knock off the Red and Gray on Fuller field. Clinton scored early in the first period and again in the second and fourth quarters. The first score came on a pass from McLaughlin to Browchuck with McLaughlin kicking the extra point. When Cataldi entered the game in the second quarter, he promptly scored the second touchdown on another pass from McLaughlin whose attempt for the extra point was blocked. Again in the fourth quarter Cataldi plunged for the third score with the point after failing.

Clinton - 20 St. Bernard's - 13

Next on the list of Clinton's victims was St. Bernard's. Clinton had already beaten them under the lights and was playing a return game. The boys were beginning to tire of the long grind, and it was very noticeable to fans in the first half. St. Bernard's scored first on an intercepted pass and for the first time this season Clinton was behind. But not for long. Led by Cataldi the boys came fighting back. Archie scored the first of his three touchdowns early in the second period with McLaughlin failing to convert. Later in the second period he again scored, this time on a pass from McLaughlin. Browchuck attempted the point after and he was successful. Again in the fourth period Cataldi behind beautiful blocking, raced around right end sixty-one yards to score Clinton's last touchdown. McLaughlin passed to Gallagher for the extra point. Here Clinton's subs entered the game and St. Bernard's succeeded in scoring another touchdown. Cataldi, along with Captain Grady, played excellent ball.

Clinton - 12 Maynard - 0

Clinton finally had reached the end of a long trail. They were playing Maynard High School in a game which was postponed from Thanksgiving to the following Saturday, because of the poor condition of the field. Maynard was one of the most stubborn teams to play Clinton, and it took our boys three periods to wear down a fighting eleven. It wasn't until the last period that we finally scored on a run by Cataldi around right end with McNally breaking interference. McLaughlin's attempt to rush for the point was stopped. Again very late in this quarter Cataldi plowed through the center of their line for the second touchdown. Again the point after failed.

This game concluded a long, gruelling season and ended the great tension endured by the boys in their successful attempt to go through the season undefeated.

At the end of a season of eleven games we find Clinton first of all, the Class "C" Champions of Massachusetts and also Midland League Champions. It was a long, hard trail from the first game of September to the final game with Maynard. Never before in the history of Clinton High football did a team bring such glory to our school and the town itself. From a group of young inexperienced players to the cream of the crop is a hard thing to believe but the townspeople really saw it happen. The high point of the season, as far as the boys were concerned, was the public banquet held in the Town Hall under the joint auspices of the Lions and the Rotary Clubs. After partaking of a splendid dinner they were entertained by speakers of renown in the sports world and the evening ended much too soon. Bill Gosselin was elected honorary Captain of this Championship eleven and we know that the people of Clinton will long remember these boys and their great accomplishments.

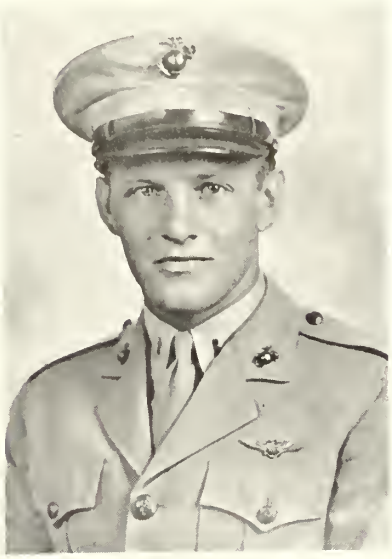
The Kenneth M. Johnson Memorial Field House



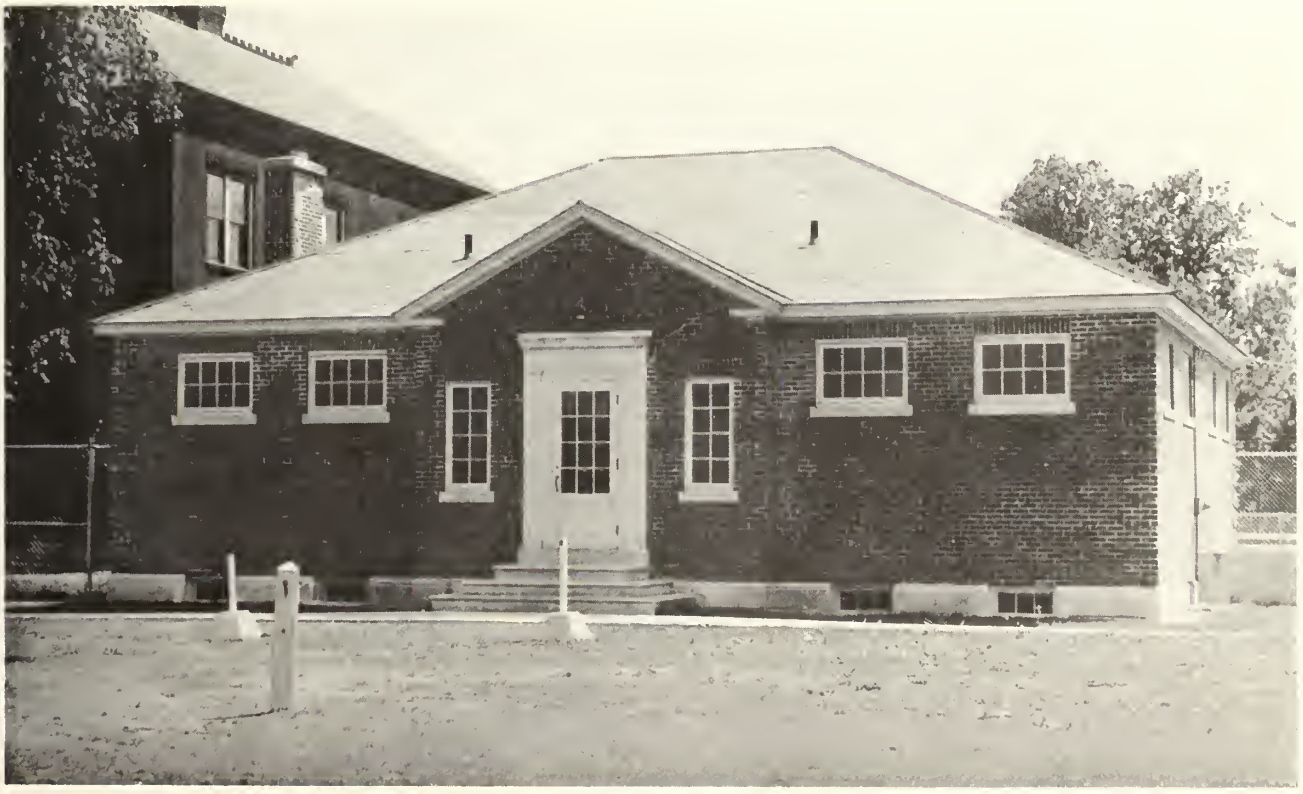
The Class of 1946 is proud to say that its senior year witnessed the completion of a long needed facility — the new athletic building at Fuller Field.

Because of the untiring efforts of the members of the Lions Club, the Clinton High School Athletic Council, and several public spirited citizens, this credit to our town became a reality.

Our Championship Football Team enjoyed the use of this Field House throughout the entire season.

We feel confident that the enthusiastic support given the team inspired it on to its glorious heights — the new lighting system, the enlarged and revamped field, the new bleachers, the large crowds, and particularly, this commendable Field House contributed to the undefeated season and the winning of the Class "C" State Championship.

We are also pleased that the Commission deemed it fitting to dedicate this very useful structure to the memory of Kenneth M. Johnson. By doing this, they not only honored a former C. H. S. athlete, who gave his life for his country, but at the same time honored every other C. H. S. athlete and student who paid the supreme sacrifice.



BASKETBALL

The basketball season of 1945-46 saw the resumption of that sport at Clinton High School after a lapse of four seasons. The wartime ban which had closed the state armory to High School activities was lifted, and we were again granted the use of its basketball facilities for practice and home games.

An enthusiastic squad of fifty candidates reported in mid-December to get ready for the nine-game schedule which had been drawn up by Athletic Director Joseph F. McCaffrey. After a few practice sessions, the lack of experience was definitely apparent. These sessions also showed that the team lacked height, a vitally important factor in basketball.

Fitchburg, the home of perennially strong basketball teams, was the first hurdle. Surprisingly, Clinton outplayed them in the first half, but succumbed to a superior second half drive.

Milford came to town for the next game only to taste defeat at the hands of the Clinton boys who gave a fine exhibition which greatly encouraged their loyal rooters.

The following three games were on the road, namely, losses at Gardner and Leominster — which were extremely close — and a win for us at Marlboro.

At this point four games remained, and if we could win two, it would mean a satisfactory season. Again Gardner and Fitchburg proved themselves to be our masters. For Leominster a sadder fate awaited. It seems that every contest between the Blue and White and the Green and Gold is savagely fought. This one was of the same pattern. For three periods the lead seesawed back and forth. With only two minutes remaining Leominster had the lead. Suddenly we caught them and went ahead. The Blue and White team was trying desperately to tie when we "stole" the ball and "froze" it successfully until the gun went off. After this tense affair, the Marlboro game was uneventful, although it meant a victory for us.

The Clinton starting lineup throughout the season included Jim McLaughlin, Bill Hildebrandt, Tom Shaughnessy, Irving Wright and Archie Cataldi. Mickey Costello, Tom Murphy, Al Dodd, Bob Williamson and John McNally served as substitutes. Because there was no captain, one of the Seniors acted in that capacity in each game.

The baseball team got away to a good start by winning against a strong St. Mark's team by a 6 to 4 score.

The next opponent was Hudson. Holding a 3 to 1 lead going into the ninth inning, things looked good for a second victory, but after two were out, Hudson pushed across two runs to tie the score. This ended the twilight contest on account of darkness. Gosselin deserved to win this one, as he held Hudson to four scattered hits.

Marlboro visited Clinton for the next contest, and in a ding-dong game Clinton emerged victorious by a 10 to 9 score. Armour, Marlboro's ace twirler, was the victim.

Clinton went to Gardner and received a 9 to 4 setback for its first loss of the season. Gebo held the locals in check while he was on the mound.

Hudson at Clinton was the next contest. Hudson, playing highclass baseball, won the game by a score of 10 to 1. The visitors demonstrated why, at this point, they were leading the Midland League. They fielded brilliantly and batted out fifteen safe hits.

Clinton went to Marlboro for the return contest with the "Shoe City" nine. The locals gave a very poor exhibition of baseball here and came out on the short end of a 20 to 3 score.

Gardner repeated its victory of an earlier date by whipping the locals by a 9 to 2 score. Gardner, with Knowlton on the mound, made this one look easy.

The locals returned to the winning column by defeating Fitchburg by an 8 to 6 score in a game played at Clinton.

Maynard at Maynard was the next game. Patsy Vitone, making his initial appearance as a twirler, pitched a two hit game. Not a hit was made off his delivery during the first eight innings. Clinton won by a 4 to 2 score.

Leominster was the latest victim. In a ten inning game at Leominster, Clinton eked out a 9 to 8 win. Donohue, on the mound for Clinton, pitched a good game, and although relieved by Gosselin when Leominster threatened in the tenth, gets credit for the win.

Due to postponements, Clinton has five games left to play: Fitchburg at Fitchburg on June 4; Leominster at Clinton on June 6; Maynard at Clinton on June 8; two contests with Milford, now tied with Hudson for the League leadership, at Clinton on June 10 and at Milford on June 12.
